Three Railroads Confronted With Threat Of Strike

Missouri Pacific Work Stoppage Is Set For Tomorrow

Three of the nation's railroad were threatened with strikes today, making possible the idling of more than 130,000 rail and steel workers.

Some 30,000 workers are set to quit their jobs on the Missouri Pacific Railroad at 2 p. m. (CST) tomorrow. Union officials, who rejected an arbitration proposal yesterday, went ahead with strike plans in the dispute over some 282 unsettled claims involving about $5,000,000.

In Pittsburgh, rail Brotherhood officials have called strikes on two inter-plant connection carriers which serve scores of plants, principally in the steel industry. One walkout is set for Saturday and the second for next Tuesday. The work stoppages on the lines would make idle some 100,000 steelworkers.

Wages are not involved in any of the rail disputes.

In Washington, Frank Douglas member of the mediation board, said the board has "given up entirely" in its efforts to avert the strike against the Missouri Pacific Lines. The road reported in St. Louis that it had stopped accepting freight that cannot be delivered before the strike deadline. Similar restrictions also would be placed on passenger, mail, baggage and express services, the railroad said. Four rail unions are involved: locomotive engineers, enginemen

Total Of Jobless Drops By 400,000 Statistics Show

Sec. Sawyer Says U. S. Economy Is In Sound Position

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8-(P)-The number of jobholders hit a 1949 peak of 59,947,000 in August. while the total of idle workers dropped more than 400,000, the census bureau said today.

The bureau's report showed that unemployment dipped to 3,689,000 It had risen in July to 4,095,000, the highest level since 1942.

The report, eagerly awaited as a clue to improving economic conditions, revealed a marked increase in factory and other non-farm employment.

Secretary of Commerce Sawyer saw in the figures "evidence of a levelling-off of the recent downward adjustment in our economy."

Ward adjustment in our economy.

He added in a statement:

"We are in a fundamentally, sound condition for continuing our economic advance." The rise in non-farm employment amounted to 1,368.000. Agricultural employment, on the other hand, declined by a like amount as farming operations entered the normal mid-summer slack period.

The total increase in civilian employed, therefore, was comparatively slight—227,000 workers.

The drop in the number of job-less was attributed by the bureau partly to the fact that many job hunting youngsters either found work or left the labor market.

A further drop in unemployment is expected for September, on which

A further drop in unemployment is expected for September, on which census figures will not be available until next month.

The normal trend of both unemployment and employment is downward from August to September, as large numbers of younger workers and job seekers drop out of the labor force to return to school.

The August report was expected on Tuesday but was delayed from day to day. One commerce department official said it is "being checked and rachecked." He would not divulge the reason for the unusual care.

The anticipated improvement in able evidence of a firming of business conditions.

Late yesterday the Federal Reserve Board reported another optimistic sign. Business loans of member banks increased for the fourth successive week after a seven-month slump.

Attenuants keep track of "handouts" or statements from Congressmen and generally help the newsmen disagree just as Congressmen do. There was a big fight in the Standing Committee in 1947. Negro reporters were seeking admission, and the committee voted four to one against them. The reason was that almost all negro newspapers are weekly papers. The majority held that this didn't constitute a press association as provided for in the rules. Eventually the Standing Committee to the standing Committee with the standing Committee to the standing Committee to the standing Committee the st Eventually the Standing Commit-tee voted to change its rules, got Congress to approve them and then admitted the newsmen under the Congress to approve them and then admitted the newsmen under the amended rules.

Now the committee is in a similar fight. It voted three to two against admitting a reporter for the new Labor Press Association—a press association set up to serve labor union papers. The majority of the committee 'has held that this is a "special interest group" barred under the rules. But the committee has again agreed to consider changing its rules and may wind up by doing so in order to let the new labor press association be admitted.

While they're at it, the standing committee may have to make another change if it wants to overcome another break-away from the general rule. Many foreign papers and news services are members. At least two are governmentowned. Tass, the Russian agency, and France Presse, the French agency. The rules say no one working for any agency of any government should be admitted ver

How To Get Along Well With Junior's Teacher

By DAVID TAYLOR MARKE AP Newsfeatures Soon vacation time will be over. Once again parents will have to think of getting junior away to school.

Some sensible advice for parents and children about getting along with teachers just has come to hand in the form of a little book to be published soon by William Morrow and Company, New York Entitled "Children Know Their Ernends," it is written by Ruth Wendell Washburn, child study ex-

Wendell Washburn, child study expert who is at present consultant in child development for several schools in Massachusetts, psychologist of the New Hampshire Children's Ald Society and resarch associate in clinical psychology at Harvard University.

In any school situation, child, parent, teachers together form a triangle with the child occupying the most important piace at the apex, It is only as the at the apex. It is only as the lines of communication from one to another are kept open that good work can be done, says Miss Washburn. There are many times in the course of his school life when a child stands in need of parents and teachers who are children—that things are always happening which make it necessary to spend more time now with one child, now with another. He will find that teacher will be just as ready to help him over a bump when he needs her. working together.

Rarely do we find a child liking all of his teachers. Some he will find too hard, others too easy. find too hard, others too easy.

When children bring home constant complaints about a teacher, parents can play an important part in meeting the problem, says Miss Washburn. To lend an overly sympathetic ear will only increase the child's conviction that he has cause for complaint. To turn a deaf ear may make the child take his next confidences elsewhere. Perhaps this child is not going to have the pleasantest possible winter with that teacher, but with the right kind of parental comment

Even though a child spends part of his time at school, concludes Miss Washburn, part of it at home, his life is one life. While he is growing up, he and his parents and teachers work it out together.

SONOMA, Tex., Sept. 8—(P)—

The second and final performance of Sonoma's first civic endeavor—an outdoor musical comedy—was presented last night to about 300 paying customers—more than the city's population.

High winds interrupted some scenes by blowing down the stage sets, but "Sonoma—the Valley of the Moon" continued in true theater tradition.

Sonoma became an incorporated city recently after its citizens split off from the town of Ennis in an argument over location of a sewage disposal plant.

The two-night outdoor theatrical production was for the benefit of Ennis' public library, in true neighborly fashion.

In a candlelight ceremony Sunday evening at 7:15 o'clock, Miss Billic Dell McGraw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. McGraw, and Billy Elmer Watson, son of Mr.

Billy Elmer Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watson, exchanged marriage vows at the Barry Baptist church. The Rev. E. W. Price was officiant.

The double ring rites were read before an altar decor of white gladioli and asters against a background of ferns. The white cathedral tapers which burned in golden floor candelabra were lighted by Miss Jo Couger of Graford and Miss Petty Hardaway of McKinney.

Miss Petty Hardaway of McKinney.

Mis. Percy Varnell was at the plano for a prelude of love songs and played accompaniments for Mrs. C. L. Yarbrough, Jr., of Waco. who sang "Always" and "Because." Mrs. Varnell also played the "Pridal Chorus" from Lohengrin and the "Wedding March" by Mendelssohn as processional and recessional. "You're My Poem of Love" was played as background for the ceremony.

Mr. McGraw gave his daughter in marriage. She wore an imported white organdy gown over bridal satin, designed with a fitted bodice, scroll neckline and leg-o'mutton sleeves extending to points over the wrists. The bouffant skirt swept into a train. Her fingertip veil of illusien was caught to a circlet of orange blossoms. Her only jewelry was a lavaliere which had belonged to her late aunt, Mrs. Earl Watson. She carried a prayerbook overlaid with a white orchid arrangement.

The bride's table was laid in a hand-crocheted cloth with a centerplece of white asters, tied with a blue satin bow. Tall blue tapers in crystal candelabra shed a soft glow over the setting.

Miss Hardaway presided at the satin-leed three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Miss Jo Couger served blue frosted guests in the bride's book, lighted by bride and bridegroom candles. Throughout the house were arrangements of gladioli and carnations in the bride's chosen colors of blue and white.

When Mr. and Mrs. Watson left for New Orleans and other points the bride was wearing a gray faille dress, a cloche and gloves of burgundy, black accessories and an orchid corsage. Upon their return they will be at home in Wortham.

The bride was graduated from Barry High school and received her Bachelor of Science degree from North Texas State College in Denton. A Sick World Requires Time-tried Remedies Sound Religion Built On Ancient Truth -Fair New World Not Possible Without Christian Principle—Jesus Established Right Pattern

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS and EARL L. DOUGLASS.

Men will never get right with one another until they get into the right relationship with the Lord of all Jesus was prescribing perfectly for a sick world when He put love of God as life? first duty. Two clear currents are discernable in the life of our time. One, already commented upon in these lessons, is the deep-flowing tide of religious interest, simple and teachabinough all walks of life. People are more eager for God than at any time within this generation. The other is the tendency of those who are professionally engaged in religion to argue, accuse, quibble, and censor, all in a spirit of narrow intelligence.

Jesus and Tradition.

In the Sunday school lesson for this week—which may confuse most teachers and pupils upon first reading because of its wide diversity of Scripture and references—Jesus is dwelling on just one theme: the tradition of the Jewish race and religion and the extent to which He was fulfilling it. Jesus insisted that He came not to destroy the law and the prophets, but to fulfill them. He was not something new and unheard of; He was the outgrowth of beliefs which His people had cherished for centuries. Or to change ine figure, He was the cornerstone set upon the foundation which prophets historians, and Psalmists had laid centuries before. Strange as it may sound to modern ears, Jesus was a most profound traditionist. He believed that everything right and helpful in the present was built on something morally and spiritually sound which had been taught centuries before and adhered to by the truly wise through the centuries.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

The Texas Power and Light Co., will feature its electrical show for the second year. Local electrical dealers will display their wares, and prizes and entertainment will be offered.

Oct. 1, the last day of the fair, will be the big day for the club boys and girls. The annual calf auctions will be held then and top prices are expected to be paid for the animals.

Children will have their days on Tuesday and Friday. White children will be admitted to the grounds free on Tuesday and negro children will have free access to the grounds on Friday.

Ten thousand tickets will be sent to all the schools in the county. Children under 12 will pay no tax while those over 12 will be required to pay a four cent government tax.

Cripps focused virtually his whole case for American aid in stabilizing Britain's finances on his request to "enlarge our opportunities of earning" dollars.

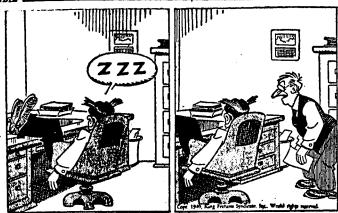

He made the same appeal to Canada. Canadian Finance Minister Douglas Abbott, backing up Cripps' request for readjustments in basic American economic policy, declared that Canada stands ready to do what it can in the present world situation.

Secretary of the Treasury Snyder, the American spokesman, promised "sympathetic consideration" to suggestions made by Cripps and Abbott for arresting the drain on Britain's dollar reserves and seeking to balance Britain's world trade.

At the same time Snyder renewed his emphasis on the American position that Marshall Plan aid must end in 1952 and that Britain's major need is to become self-sufficient by that time. Cripps, Abbott, and Snyder set forth the basic positions of their governments at the second session of the three-power British crisis talks which opened here yesterday. All dealt in fairly general terms. None mentioned the question, much discussed publicly, whether the British pound sterling should or would be devalued.

The third meeting of the conference was called for today.

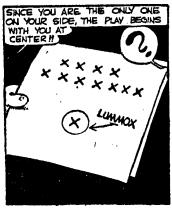

At 3 p. m. (CST) Cripps and British Foreign Minister Bevin were scheduled to meet with President Truman at Blair House. Such calls on the president are customary for visiting cabinet members of foreign governments. But the meeting obviously afforded the Britishers an opportunity briefly to discuss the dollar crisis with the chief executive.

SCHOOL BOARD SETS $584,000 BUDGET FOR 1949-50 OPERATIONS

The Corsicana School Board, in a short but significant session Tuesday, approved a $584,000 budget for the 1949-50 term—a vast increase over last year's figure of the corsicate of the corsicate

In adopting the budget, board members agreed not to spend "recklessly," making purchases and expenditures only when they are absolutely necessary.

Revenue receipts for the year will total $505,035,11, which includes the state per capita apportionment of $184,775.50, and $140,250 in funds from the local maintenance tax, and other funds from local sources such as tuition, fees and donations.

Non-revenue reseipts will total $90,000, and a total balance from various school funds was listed at $15,604.89.

The largest expenditure will be $405,000 for instructional service, which includes considerable salary boosts for teachers. This coupled with other operational costs give a total current expense of $450,000. The remainder of the $584,000 budget will be expended in payment of borrowed money, interest and redemption of bonds and for the payment of details. new buildings, additions and equipment. Senator Malone lauded Ester' energy and perseverance and said:
"Carl is the only man I would come this far to see. If he operates this way when he has heart trouble, we're going to have a tough time with him when he gets cured."

Malone said Letourneau Tech is now turning out 2.000 trained technicians annually. "But they have to go East to get jobs", he said. "What we need is industries here to employ them.

Business and civic leaders arranged the appreciation day as a tribute to Estes for his leadership over a period of years in attracting new industry to this sector.

The publisher of the Longview News and Journal was given a Cadillac sedan on behalf of businessmen and frienis. He, in turn, presented it to Letourneau Tech as the first $5,000 contribution to a fund to build a $200,000 building for the school. Mrs. Estes added another $5,000 check to the fund in lieu of a second Cadillac presented to Estes a short time ago by Harrison county citizens.

Responding to the tributes, Estes promised that a steel mill would shortly be built in East Texas. He did not elaborate on his statement.

Estes helped effect purchase of Lone Star Steel Company facilities from the Federal government two years ago.

Three Texas congressmen and a number of judges were present at the ceremonies.

"What we need is industries here to employ them." "Industrializing the South and West will help us keep them at home."

Wendell Dunbar of Longview, general chairman of arrangements, said Estes had been largely rejects in the Longview and East Texas area in recent years.

Those here for the celebration included Congressmen Wright Patrice of Palestine; Judge Randolph Bryant of U. S. District Court of Palestine; Judge Randolph Bryant of U. S. District Ourt of Civil Appeals, Texarkana; Fred Wemple, the first part of the Sixth Court of Civil Appeals, Texarkana; Fred Wemple, chairman of the Texas Highway Commission, Midland; Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety. Added Strength In Line Sought For Collegians

Navarro Junior College was working a trimmed-down football squad early this week, but Coaches Ken Clark and Guyle Akridge were still looking for new arrivals to the Bulldog squad.

From a squad of 46 that reported on opening day last week, only 29 remained at the end of Tuesday's practice, the mentors reported.

29 remained at the end of Tuexday's practice, the mentors reported.

The opening game with Kilgore Junior College is only about a week off, but real preparations for that tilt are not well under way as yet. The coaches expect to see several new boys on the squad within the next few days.

Contrary to what the coaches thought before practice started. Navarro's 1949 troubles are in the line, Most of the boys who have reported thus far are backs, and there are few replacements for the line that was largely responsible for the Bulldog performance in 1948.

"The line is the big question mark at the present time", Clark indicated Tuesday. "We had expected the line to be stronger than the backfield but the opposite is true. We lack depth and size in the forward wall."

"It looks now as if some of the backs will have to be converted to linemen", Clark added.

Clark indicated that the Bulldogs will carry a squad of 33 boys this year, approximately the number carried in 1948.

"The boys are looking good in spots, and weak in others." Clark said. "We have a lot of work to do, and a short time to do it in."

A run-down of the linemen at the college bore out Clark's remark that some backs are due for conversion into linemen.

Candidates for the line are as follows:

Mrs. S. A. Taylor | Corsicana Streets, Sidewalks And Curbs Need Repairs, Officials Say

The average citizen of Corsicana has become quite used to the deplorable condition of several of the downtown streets, sidewalks and curbs, but of late, more asd more citizens have become alarmed at the dangers they present and have complained to city officials.

There are a hundred or more broken curbs and sidewalks in the downtows business section and many of the streets are nearly impassable due to holes, sunken bricks and broken concrete. Not only are these hazards unsightly, but theey also are dangerous to the public.

The longer they go unrepaired the more costly will be the repair job. Any injury caused by these unsafe spots is apt to be chargeable to the property owner. Likewise, injury caused by these unsafe spots is apt to be chargeable to the property owner. Likewise, injury caused by the city.

The city engineer's office and Mayor Hubert T. Braselton have received many complaints recently about the conditions of the curbs. In the conditions of the curbs, and walks and to take davantage of the city's offer to cooperate in the repair jobs.
